
St. Petersburg Sailing Week

August 10-18, 2019

Enjoy St. Petersburg on traditional St. Petersburg Sailing Week!

You have a unique opportunity to visit one of the most exciting summer events in St. Petersburg - a city that is not without reason called “Venice of the North”.

The city repeatedly marked by the world tourist community as the World’s Leading Cultural City Destination (by World Travel Awards).

What is the whole story about?

For the first time St. Petersburg Sailing Week was organized in 1898 to bring yachtsmen from different yacht clubs of our big city together. Luckily, after a long period this regatta has been relaunched in 1997 again. It continues to be one of the most interesting traditions and spectacular events in the whole North-West region.

The main goals of the regatta are:

- Unite all yachtsmen from different yacht clubs of St. Petersburg and the Leningrad Region.
- Maintain historical maritime traditions and start new ones.
- Encourage the development of the water tourism infrastructure in Leningrad Region and North-West region.
- Support the high level of practical skills of crews.
